

Children and Family Resource Evening 2019

This evening is for parents, children's workers, family workers, church leaders and anyone else who has an interest in children and family ministry

A evening to explore, be equipped and encouraged as we focus on the partnership between parenting and Children's and Family ministry to nurture, grow and release children for a life of faith

Thursday 24th October 2019 | 7.30pm – 9.30pm

7.00pm REGISTRATION AND COFFEE

Pinhoe Baptist Church | 157-165 Pinhoe Road | Exeter EX4 7HZ

This year's keynote speaker:

Rachel Turner

Rachel Turner is an author and pioneer for The Bible Reading Fellowship's Parenting for Faith programme

(www.parentingforfaith.org.uk), equipping carers of all kinds to raise God-connected children and teens, including through the free Parenting for Faith video course. She has been a children's, youth and family worker in churches around the UK and the National Children's Work Coordinator for New Wine. She continues to write books, consult, speak at conferences and run training days for parents and carers, church leaders and youth and children's workers around the UK and Europe.

Sessions include:

- Worship
- A culture that allows faith to flourish
- God smart and God connected – key tools to empower children to connect with God at home and church
- Prayer and intercession for Children and Families
